1. IMPORTANT TERMS OF THIS CONTRACT

London Contemporary Dance School (LCDS) would like to bring your attention to the following important terms of this contract. Please also refer to Section 3 of this contract for further information on important terms.

- 1.1. These terms and conditions govern the relationship between you and London Contemporary Dance School, at The Place, and it is important that you read them carefully prior to accepting your offer to ensure that you understand their contents. By accepting LCDS's offer of a place on a Course, you (and your parent / guardian / named responsible adult if you are under 18 at the time of enrolment) accept these terms and conditions in full, which along with your offer and LCDS's rules, regulations, policies and procedures form the contract between you (and your parent / guardian / named responsible adult if you are under 18 at the time of enrolment) and the LCDS, in relation to your studies at LCDS.
- 1.2. These terms and conditions will become binding on you and us when we confirm your place on a Course of higher education at LCDS in writing following your written acceptance of an offer, and any conditions set out in your offer have been met to our satisfaction. At this point a legal contract is formed between you and LCDS on the basis of the terms and conditions set out in your offer letter, the terms and conditions set out in this document, and the terms and conditions set out in the policies and regulations listed in Section 3 of this contract.
- 1.3. For students studying on a course, run in collaboration with, and validated by, University of the Arts Singapore (UAS), these terms and conditions, alongside other LCDS rules, regulations, policies and procedures which form the contract between you and LCDS, will only be binding during the period for which you will be registered and studying at LCDS (Year 1 of the degree).

Undergraduate students paying Home fees

- 1.4. For students paying Home undergraduate fees, the Course fees confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in further years of study by an amount determined in accordance with measures set by Government. Any such increased fees will not exceed the fee cap current in respect of the relevant period. For more information, please consult the LCDS Fees Policy, Annex A to these Terms and Conditions.
- 1.5. The above term applies to all undergraduate students paying Home fees, whether you are funded via the Student Loans Company or an equivalent funding body, or you are self-funded.

Students paying Overseas Fees

- 1.6. For students paying Overseas undergraduate fees, the course fees confirmed in your offer letter may be increased in further years of study but will not exceed 5% in any one year. Course fees are agreed annually in the summer by the Finance and General Purposes Committee.
- 1.7. If you do not pay course fees in accordance with these terms, LCDS reserves the right to withdraw your place on the course, and/or suspend or withdraw you from the course until any course fee debt is paid or cancelled by LCDS in accordance with its Fees Policy. If you cease to be a student of LCDS, because for example you withdraw or LCDS terminates your registration, you may still be liable for any course fees and/or other charges which are outstanding, in accordance with the Fees Policy.

Health Care

- 1.8. You should be aware that the majority of the courses of study at LCDS and their assessments can be physically demanding and by their very nature include elements of risk including injury. Whilst we take reasonably practicable measures to reduce or eliminate these risks, it is not possible to eliminate them all. For this reason, you may wish to consider taking out private health insurance to support you with any medical treatment that you may require. LCDS also offer a Student Support Package, more information can be found via: Your Health and Wellbeing | The Place
- 1.9. Health care can be obtained free of charge from the NHS for 'home students', <sup>1</sup> as well as those who have paid the Health Surcharge as part of their Student Visa, but waiting times for treatment are unpredictable and may result in disruption to and interruption of your studies. Long periods of absence may result in you being unable to complete your course. You are advised to contact LCDS for information and advice regarding medical insurance.

- 1.10. For students who begin studying at London Contemporary Dance School on the BA (Hons) Contemporary Dance Performance course, Cert HE Preparation for Contemporary Dance, or a Postgraduate course from September 2021 onwards, the degrees delivered are validated and awarded by the University of the Arts London (UAL).

- You may be required to complete additional administrative processes for the validating university to ensure you are appropriately registered for the award that your course of study with LCDS leads to.

Key material information relating to these terms and conditions (such as policies and course information) can be located on The Place website: <https://theplace.org.uk/study>

Glossary of Key Words used in this Document

‘Course’ is used to refer to the full programme of training, study and assessment which you will undertake in pursuit of an award. Each course is made up of a number of units, and follows the academic regulations of the validating university, the University of the Arts London.

‘Enrolment’ The annual process by which you formally confirm you are beginning each year of your course. Enrolment must normally be fully completed in order to receive full access to LCDS and course facilities. Enrolment is carried out by LCDS, and takes place annually (i.e. each student must re-enrol at the start of each academic year in order to continue their studies).

‘Guardian’ means an adult who is not your parent, but who has legal responsibility for you. A guardian takes parental responsibility for a child until they reach 18 years of age and are legally an adult, and looks after the child they are responsible for, including making decisions for the child.

‘Time out from studies’, is where you take some time out from completing your studies within the normal anticipated timeframe. This means your registration as a student with LCDS remains current, even though you will not be enrolled for the period of time out you are taking (please also see the section ‘Registration’ below, for further information). Depending on the length of time away from studies that you need to take, this may or may not have an impact on the point at which you can re-join your course and resume your studies, and in some instances you may be required to restart a unit or academic year from the start. Taking time out from your studies might also have implications for your student finance arrangements if you are in receipt of funding from the Student Loans Company (or another funding body such as the Student Awards Agency for Scotland or US Federal Loans). Any authorisation of a period of taking time out must be done in accordance with the academic regulations of the validating university. Students studying under a Student visa should note that time out from studies may impact upon the terms of your visa and/or alter your visa status.

'Named Responsible Adult' is someone who has agreed to act in your interests and take responsibility for you in matters relating to your higher education course of study. Applicants and students who are estranged from their parents may name a 'responsible adult' who has agreed to take responsibility for them and will be the person with whom LCDS will communicate with where necessary, with regard to any aspect of your study. If you have any questions about this, you should contact studentsupport@theplace.org.uk to discuss it further.

'Registration' is the final part of the admissions process, where you confirm and update as necessary the personal details we hold for you which you provided in your application; confirm the LCDS course you are intending to study, and agree to abide by, comply and engage with our Terms and Conditions and all related regulations and policies. Registration confirms that you are a student of London Contemporary Dance School.

'Validated' Validation is defined by the Quality Assurance Agency as 'a process by which a degree-awarding body judges a module or course developed and delivered by another organisation and approves it as being of an appropriate standard and quality to contribute, or lead, to one of its awards'.

'Validating University' The higher education institution that validates the courses and awards your degree. Your degree certificate will state that you have a degree from the validating university.

Queries and Enquires Queries and enquires about these Terms and Conditions should be addressed in writing to the Head of Registry and Quality at LCDS: QualityandCompliance@theplace.org.uk

In the event of a conflict between these terms and conditions and any other regulations, policies or procedures set out in condition 3.3 which apply to your studies, these terms and conditions shall take precedence.
- 3.6. The contract may be ended by London Contemporary Dance School and your enrolment terminated if the relevant conditions are not met or our terms not complied with, as set out in the documents specified in condition 3.3, above. For example, failure to comply with the codes

- 3.7. It is also a condition of your contract that any information submitted with or in relation to your application is true, genuine, accurate and complete (i.e. does not omit information you have been asked to provide). A student will be deemed to be 'enrolled' once they have undertaken the enrolment process with LCDS at the start of each academic year.

Visa and Immigration requirements

- 3.10. LCDS is a sponsor for the purposes of sponsoring students who wish to study from outside the UK and has measures in place to ensure that it complies with its obligations to the UK Government in relation to immigration. You will need to demonstrate that you have valid immigration status to undertake your studies. Where relevant, you are required to comply with any terms and conditions applicable to overseas (international) students requiring immigration permission to enter or remain in the United Kingdom and with UK immigration law requirements. LCDS must comply with its own duties under immigration law and as a result may have to withdraw sponsorship of your Student route visa for a number of reasons. Queries regarding visas should be addressed directly to admissions@theplace.org.uk
- 3.11. See also Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions, 'Enrolment and Re-enrolment' and Section 8 of these Terms and Conditions 'Termination of Contract and Enrolment'.

4. Application and Admission to London Contemporary Dance School

- 4.1. The LCDS Admissions Policy sets out LCDS framework for applying and being admitted to LCDS. The policy included details of LCDS' processes for seeking feedback on, and raising appeals and complaints against, decisions made in connection with an application.

Disabled applicants and students, and additional support needs

- 4.2. If are disabled and/or have any additional support needs you are strongly encouraged to disclose this Admissions and Registry Manager as soon as you apply or at any time during the admissions process, in order that we can best support you through your studies. LCDS may tailor individual support plans to students under the Health Well-Being and Support for Study Policy and processes, either prior to enrolment or at any time on the course once enrolled. Disabled students are encouraged to disclose their support requirements so that we can endeavour to meet them during the admissions process and subsequent studies. In order to receive the support and any necessary adjustments early disclosure is highly recommended.

Disclosure of pre-existing physical injuries and conditions

- 4.3. Some courses delivered by LCDS concern physical training. LCDS therefore encourage applicants who have any pre-existing injury or condition to disclose this prior to commencing studies, in order that they can be appropriately supported. Where candidates do not disclose a pre-existing injury or condition ahead of commencing their studies, or enrolled students fail to disclose injuries or conditions arising after Enrolment, LCDS accept no liability for any exacerbation or impact upon such an injury or condition. For further information, please also see Section 11 of these Terms and Conditions, 'Health and Safety'.

- 4.4. LCDS and The Place have policies on safeguarding children and vulnerable adults, and (where relevant) on communication with parents for students who are under 18 years of age or in a vulnerable position. Applicants who will be under 18 at the time of their enrolment will, in addition to agreeing to these terms and conditions, be required to obtain a parent's / guardian's / named responsible adult's agreement to these terms and conditions and agreement to be responsible for Course fees or other charges. Further information about the policies can be found on The Place website as listed in Section 3 of these Terms and Conditions.

Criminal Convictions

- 4.5. Having a criminal record is not necessarily a bar to training with LCDS. LCDS is committed to equality of opportunity and will not request or require any applicant to disclose whether they have a criminal record prior to receiving an offer of a place to study being made, in any circumstances.
- 4.6. LCDS only requires disclosure of a criminal record in specific circumstances dictated by the requirements of courses. Where a course has a compulsory element (e.g. placement involving 'regulated activity'<sup>2</sup> with children and/or vulnerable adults) that requires a criminal records check (enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service, or 'DBS' check), applicants will normally be required to undertake a criminal record check before an applicant's accepted place can be confirmed by LCDS.
- 4.7. Where a course has an optional element requiring a criminal record check that students can choose whether to take, students are not required to undergo a criminal record check unless they wish to participate in the element.

Upon receipt of a disclosure of a criminal record, whether by an individual applicant/student or as a result of a criminal records check, LCDS will undertake a risk assessment in accordance with the procedures under our Criminal Records Policy. For more information, details of relevant courses where an enhanced DBS check may be required, and the specific circumstances in which LCDS will process criminal records data, please see the Criminal Records Policy and procedures, published at Student Policies | The Place. All criminal records data will be processed in accordance with LCDS Criminal Records Policy and the LCDS Privacy Notice. Course Summary documents also indicate where a criminal records check will or may be required.

<sup>2</sup> For more information on 'regulated activity' please see the Criminal Records Policy

5. Enrolment and Re-Enrolment

- 5.3. The deferral of the offer of a place for enrolment in a later year of study is not normally permitted by LCDS; LCDS will exercise its discretion in its consideration of a request to defer a place for enrolment, particularly where a deferral may be a reasonable adjustment for a disabled student.
- 5.4. Failure to enrol at the start of your course in accordance with the conditions set out in Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions will result in your relationship with LCDS and this contract being terminated and you will need to reapply from the start to be considered for a place to study at LCDS in a future year. This is the case regardless of whether you have previously completed a course with LCDS.
- 5.5. Provided you are eligible to re-enrol (which means you have met the assessment and progression requirements, do not owe any course fees and have not been suspended from the course for any reason including, for example, relating to proceedings brought under any LCDS policies (such as, but not limited to, the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy; Emergency Powers of Exclusion and Suspension; Health, Wellbeing and Support for Studies Policy and Prevention of Bullying, Harassment and Sexual Misconduct Policy), you must re-enrol for each subsequent year of study using the approved procedure.
